

LOCAL INFORMATION

Shopping

Closest bakery (Boulangerie): Créon d'Armagnac (5 min), also village shop and post office. Try the 'chocolatines' – they're delicious (and huge). The baker won a prize for the best croissant in Les Landes. The shop is on the right at the village exit sign, on the way to Gabarret. It is opened on Tues-Sat: 7h-13 & 15h30-19h, and Sun: 7h-12h30. Otherwise, in Gabarret (10 min), you'll find bakeries, 3 butchers, 2 small supermarkets, bank, cash point, post office and newsagents, all opened on a Sunday morning. Also, Labastide (10 min) has a small village shop.

All bakeries in Les Landes are shut on Mondays but you can drive over to Cazaubon in the Gers (10 min) to buy bread or go to the supermarket in Gabarret.

Post Office: in the bakery in Créon d'Armagnac (further afield: Labastide and Gabarret)

Post Box: in Saint-Julien, yellow box by the old school building

Supermarket/ petrol station.

Gabarret (10 min): go through the village, turn right at the round-about, the supermarket is on the left as you leave the village.

Opened 9h00-19h30 from Mo to Sat, Sun 9h00-12h30

Cazaubon (15 min): Intermarché at the exit of Cazaubon, on the road to Barbotan, on the left.

Opened 9h00-19h00 from Mo to Sat, Sun 9h00-12h00

Mont de Marsan (30 min): - Carrefour: on the left as you drive towards the town centre

- Leclerc: on the ring road on the left following the signs to Dax

Please note that supermarkets in France are closed on Sunday afternoons and most shops shut between 12h-12h30 and 15h00 (for a siesta of course!). Some shops are opened on Sunday mornings in Gabarret (for example: butcher, baker, small supermarkets) but they are shut on Mondays.

Local Markets (see leaflets)

- Gabarret (10 min) : small market on Wednesday morning
- Barbotan (15 min) : Wednesday 7h – 14h
- Cazaubon (13 min) small traditional market : Friday 7h -14h
- Roquefort (20 min) : Saturday morning
- Eauze (30 min, in the Gers) Thursday morning – boasts the best market in Gascony – in summer, also on Sunday
