THINGS TO DO (AND WHERE TO EAT...)

We suggest you visit this website: <http://www.tourisme-landesdarmagnac.fr/voir-faire>, although it is in French, it has the latest tourist information on the local area. Below, we've listed some other places further afield.

The Tourist Information in Labastide d'Armagnac (5 min away) has a wealth of information and leaflets.

We strongly recommend you check these locations on the internet before you travel to make sure they are opened! (especially when holidaying outside of July and August)

Beaches

In Les Landes

- Mimizan (1h15 min), better for young children as there often are paddling pools, very easy drive on quiet, straight roads, aim for the north beaches as the water there is clearer. If you take a right turn at the fair, a left turn just after the camping site and follow the picnic signs, you'll find a nice shaded car-park. The only downside is it's a bit of a walk down the beach to the town centre.
- Moliets – Courant d'Huchet Beach (NOT the main Moliets beach) – it is an unusual spot as the river Courant d'Huchet goes into the ocean at this spot. So one can swim in the ocean or in the current. Not as busy as the main beach – beware though, there are no life-guards and a bit of a walk from the car-park (go early)
- Capbreton (1h30 min) nice resort (Les Landes main harbour) with restaurants on the beach front, stony beach
- Vieux-Boucau (1h40 min), great sandy beach and breakers

Surfing

Hossegor is Europe's capital of surfing but the whole Côte Landaise (Biscarrosse, Vieux-Boucau, Mimizan, Moliets, Capbreton) also offers good surfing. All have hire shops and surf schools.

Recreational lakes

- Lac de l'Uby (Barbotan, 15 mins) : Leisure park on the shore of a 80,000m<sup>2</sup> reservoir, 260m fine sand beach, lifeguard supervised swimming, playground, large swimming pool with baby pool, spa, lagoon, shaded picnic areas, refreshments, water activities on the lake: pedalos, canoes, rowing, windsurfing, category 2 fishing
- Lac de Clarens (Casteljaloux, 35 min): beach, water-slides, pedalos, tree-top acrobatic, paint-ball, laser-tag. Very popular with some of our guests.

- Montreal (30 mins) : Leisure park with 250,000m<sup>2</sup> reservoir. Lifeguard supervised swimming, 130 metres fine sand beach. Refreshments, water toboggan, pontoon, ping-pong, volleyball, picnic areas.
- Base de loisirs de Testarrouman, Pissos (1h10), also archery, horse-riding, canoeing, top-tree acrobatics and cycling in the Parc Regional des Landes
- Lac d'Arjuzanx (1h10): the site is natural reserve with a small but nice beach, also pedalos and a walk around the lake.
- Lake beaches on the Atlantic Coast: The barrier of Dunes along the Atlantic coast has given birth to a series of lakes (étangs) linked together by rivers known as Courrant. They offer a safe alternative to the ocean, perfect for toddlers, with the added comfort of shady picnic areas. We recommend lakes of Cazaux & Sanguinet (Navarosse) or Parentis & Biscarrosse (both lakes near Biscarrosse), Léon or Soustons. These lakes are ideal locations for sailing and wind-surfing.

Canoeing

- Lac de l'Uby, Barbotan (8 km)
- River : Roquefort (20 km)

On the way you'll find little scenes and signs telling the history of the sites. Between Mont-de-Marsan et Arthez, the Voie Verte is tarmaced and ideal for rollers.
- A bit further, in the Parc Regional des Landes, you can hire bikes and enjoy a ride in the shade of the pine trees, with plenty of interesting features, traditional villages, remote Hospitalier churches on the Santiago de Compostella pilgrim route, healing springs... there are hire centres in Pissos (1h10), Saugnac-et-Muret (1h20) and Belin-Beliet (1h30).

Walking

- There are many footpaths in the area, one going right past the house, but you might be tempted to follow the path of the pilgrims on their way to Compostelle. The house is situated half-way between the Via Podiensis (Chemin du Puy), past Montreal, and the Via Lemovicencis (Chemin de Vézélais), past Roquefort. You can take your pick.
- In the Parc Regional des Landes, you can enjoy many shady walks in the forest. We recommend one leaving from Saugnac past mills, a healing spring and an ancient chapel.

Local Fêtes - Ferias

From May and August, each village celebrates its fête with entertainment, special meals, dancing and fireworks- visitors are always welcome. Here, people use the plural form fêtes because the event last several days, mobilising all the towns associations, bars, restaurants and bodegas, night and day, event in the smallest village.

The biggest event is in Mont de Marsan, Fêtes de la Madeleine, with corridas and courses landaises, float, fire-works in July. Or try the basque version, in Bayonne, also in July. Otherwise, find information on local village fêtes programs (Roquefort, Gabarret) on the board on the wall at the junction of the village. Entertainment ranges from cycle races to pétanque or quilles tournaments, theatre to discos, floats and fireworks to inter-villages. You'll see on the programs various speciality meals (escargots (snails), barbecued duck carcasses, sardinades (grilled sardines) among them). These convivial meals are not haute-cuisine but the food is always plentiful, and delicious, all in a convivial atmosphere.

Glossary:

Course landaise: local corridas involving cows of the same breed as the corrida bulls, but no harm is done to the animals. It is a kind of joust in which men have to show bravery, skill and suppleness facing the charging cow, either by swerving by or jumping over it.

Intervillage: villagers of various ages compete in an arena in games, many including a cow, which makes it good fun to watch.

Bandas: traditional music bands (brass, woodwind and percussion instruments) playing typical fêtes tunes

Bodegas: make-shift street bars serving sangria and local food

Pétanque: French for Boules

Quilles: Local skittles. Saint-Julien boasts the only indoors quille ground (quillier) in Aquitaine and the village club is proud to have 2 French champions amongst its members.

The Tourist Office in Gabarret sometimes organises afternoons with local players for tourists to discover the game.
